Cyber Resilience Act - Implementation

Introducing the Cyber Resilience Act: the EU's new plan to make sure all digital products on the EU market are safe from cyber threats. This important rulebook covers the security of products considering their lifecycle. It requires that devices and software are designed, updated, and maintained to protect users in our increasingly digital world.

Overview

Cybersecurity is a collective effort. The European Commission is closely working with the industry, Member States, and the European Union Agency for Cybersecurity (ENISA) (https://www.enisa.europa.eu/) on the implementation of the Cyber Resilience Act (CRA).
